

Furlough Status – Student Guidance

At this time, DAU is waiting for formal guidance from the Department of Defense regarding the operating procedures with respect to how student furlough days will coincide with DAU's furlough plan on training days. Currently, DAU plans to conduct classes as scheduled subject to the furlough schedule. DAU students should contact their home office for explicit guidance pertaining to how the sequestration furlough will affect their training plans.